

St. Dunstans Avenue, W3

A substantial five-bedroom, two-bathroom semi-detached home located in a sought-after residential area just north of Poets Comer in Acton.

Offering generous entertaining space, the property spans nearly 2,000 sq ft and features a large rear garden with a large outbuilding along with off-street parking for multiple vehicles.

Thoughtfully designed for families, this home is filled with natural light, offering a perfect environment for both everyday living and entertaining.

The ground floor offers a generous double reception room that opens into a spacious conservatory and further benefits from a separate kitchen.

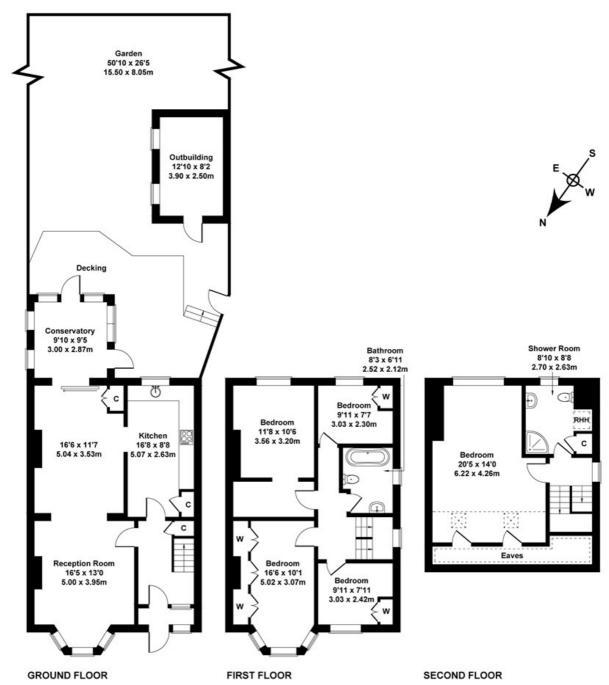

The first floor comprises four bedrooms and a generously sized family bathroom, while the loft has been converted to feature a master bedroom and a separate shower room.

A paved forecourt at the front provides ample off-street parking, and the property is set back from St Dunstans Avenue, a picturesque tree-lined residential street.
